2) Select "Create" to start creating your Voki

3) Select a character from one the styles

4) Customize your character using the options, including changing color of eyes, skin and lips and by using the tweak feature

5) Change the hairstyle and color, change clothing, and add or remove 'bling'

6) Voice: Add your own voice via phone or microphone, an audio file, or Voki's built in text-to-speech option

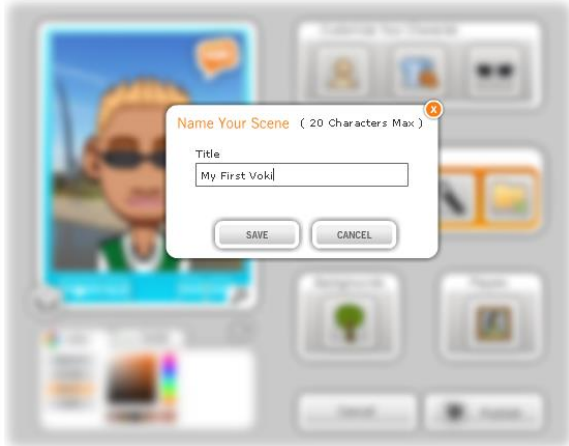

7) Choose a background from the options available, or upload your own image

8) Choose a theme player

9) Select Publish Voki, and then give your Voki a name

10) Once published, you can provide a link to the Voki, or you can use the provided code to embed the Voki in a website.

A screenshot of the Voki website's sharing and embedding options. On the left, there is a Voki character and buttons for "Edit Your Voki" and "Create New Voki". Below these are instructions to login or register. On the right, a panel titled "Share Your Voki" offers options to "Share Your Voki" or "Send To A Friend". It includes social media sharing icons (Facebook, Twitter, Google+, WordPress, Email) and a section for "Copy this permalink:" with a URL: <http://www.voki.com/pickup.php?scid=10797270&height=267&width=200>. Below that, it provides an "OR" option and a section for "Grab the code and place it on your webpage:" with a large block of HTML/JavaScript code for embedding.
